PRESS RELEASE

Veteran artist, ready to take the world by storm, with fresh new music and management.

Dallas. TX March. May 18th., 2018– Ebony'e McGee is a powerhouse artist! With over 25 years of musical experience, she has been blowing audiences away with her soprano range and distinctive tone. She can be quoted as saying her music is "life music". Music that just makes you feel good. Ebony'e is likening this phase not to a rebirth, but to that of a fresh start. New look, new management, same amazing voice. She's not "back" , she's here to stay! In 2013, Ebony'e released her first single. Available on all digital outlets, it's sure to please.

"Never Shoulda", composed by Grammy Award winning producer Madukwu Chinwah and penned by the artist Ebony'e, is the manifestation of all things soulful; timeless instrumentation paired with life lyrics, a tune sure to please the pallets of R&B music lovers. This tune embodies all of the elements of soul culture music and all of the things that make music great. Later this year, Ebony'e plans to re-release new music with the same sound and same greatness. You can catch Ebony'e at festivals, private parties, local and national venues and MORE!
